HAVING OUR MUG appear in print on the front page of The Campbell Press last week of course subjected us to a certain amount of good-natured (we hope) kidding on the part of our constituents.

As you probably know during the years we have operated this sheet, we have scrupulously avoided, in a sort of casual way, having our photographic likeness publicized in these columns.

In the 11 years or so that we have been connected with this operation, you can count on your fingers the times that GV's mug has appeared in print.

It is not because of any false modesty on our part that this has happened.

SHUCKS, WE ARE just as publicity-prone as the next guy.

But, you see, having some control of what goes in or stays out of this paper sort of acts as a self-administered check on any excessive pictorial display of our handsome features.

But there is another reason also which deserves some mention.

Since we have been in Campbell we have shot literally thousands of pictures. When shooting individuals we always caution them to relax so that the camera will do them justice.

But somehow we haven't been able to do that when someone shoots us. Consequently any photo of us always looks as if we are in a dentist's chair. You can draw your own conclusions from that statement.

You ought to see our passport photo.

On the other hand, maybe you shouldn't.

Let's leave well enough alone.

BUT LAST WEEK was an exceptional case.

Although our picture alongside that of photogenic Police Chief John Morgan suffered by comparison, we still allowed it to appear.

Sincerely we were deeply appreciative of the reason for the picture, i.e., being the recipient of the first certificate of merit ever awarded by the Campbell Police Department.

For those who tuned in late, the police department plans to make such an award six times each year to citizens of the community who have contributed in some "outstanding" manner to the operation of the department.

For those who might want to belittle this achievement, we hasten to assure you that our contribution, as recognized by the police, was not a financial one based on any traffic fines we might have paid.

Our score in that field is fortunately pretty low.

Thank you, John and your crew, we truly

'Tis a great St. Patrick's Day

St. Lucy's parish plans to build $350,000 church

Plans for a new $350,000 church building, which will be double the capacity of the present St. Lucy's Church, were unveiled on Sunday by the Rev. John Lally, pastor of St. Lucy's Catholic Church in Campbell.

It is anticipated that construction on the church will begin within 60 days.

One of the outstanding features will be a 65-foot tower which will be separate from the main building. The tower which will house the chimes and will be topped by a cross will be visible for miles.

A model, constructed to scale (1/8" to 1-foot), of the edifice, which will be built on church-owned property just south of the parish rectory on Winchester Blvd., was on display in front of St. Lucy's on Sunday at all the masses.

GROWTH

The continued growth of the parish, which has resulted in such overcrowded conditions that members of the parish are unable to be accomodated, were the basic reasons, noted by Father Lally, for a new church.

The present church, which will be converted into a hall that will be used for parish and school activities, was completed in 1957. It accomodates 600 persons in the sanctuary with another 300 able to squeeze into the "annex", the hall that adjoins the sanctuary.

The new church will seat 1200.

St. Lucy's parish, Father Lally reports, serves approximately 2500 families and about 4200 persons attend the six masses on Sunday.

Don French of San Jose, architect for the building, said that working drawings have been completed and the blue prints will be available shortly. It is estimated that it will take between 10 months and a year to complete the new church.

French explained that the design of the church can be described as contemporary modern, extremely functional with the emphasis on simplicity.

SEPARATE TOWER

The church building will be of concrete masonry construction. The 65-foot carillion which will house the electronic chimes which will be separate from the main building will be of the same material.

The tower will be six-feet square. The church itself will be 110-feet square and will face Winchester Blvd. There will also be access to the parking lots from Industrial Street at the rear of the church property.

The vestibule (narthex) and front court (atrium) at the entrance of the church is 42-feet

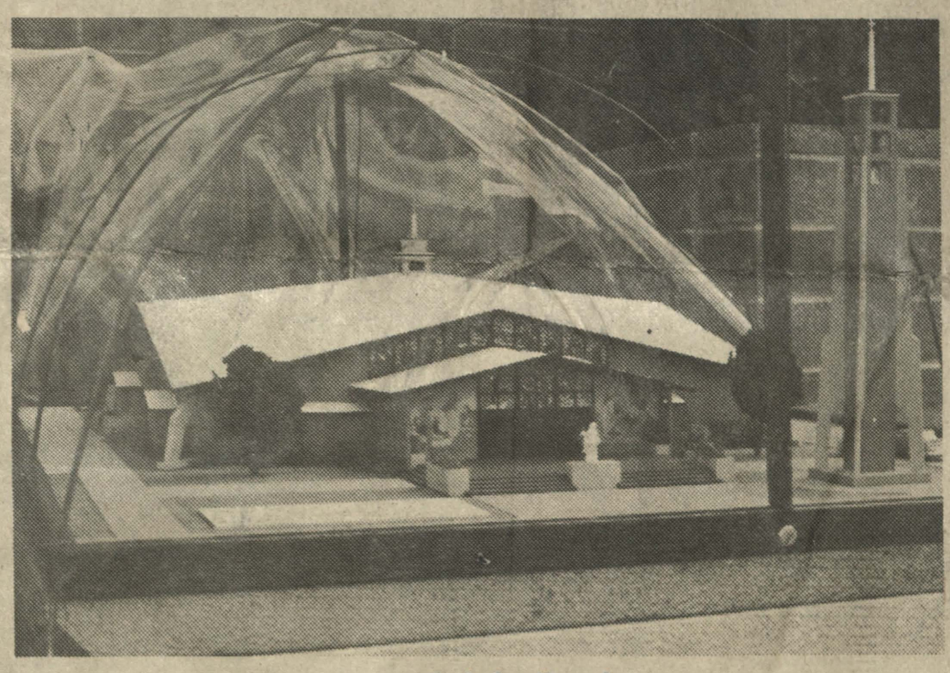
THREE OBVIOUS REASONS--Overcrowded conditions of the present St. Lucy's Church (the three above could not get inside the doors at one of the masses Sunday, a common occurrence) have made it necessary for a new church to be constructed. The new edifice will be twice the size of the present church which was first occupied in 1957.



MODEL OF NEW CHURCH--On display Sunday was the above pictured model to scale of the new $350,000 St. Lucy's Catholic Church on which construction will start in about 60 days. The new church which will double the capacity of the present sanctuary and will seat 1200. It will be located just north of the parish rectory on church-owned property on Winchester Blvd.

Project guides future of city

After months of research and study, Campbell on Monday night officially launched an ambitious advanced planning program that places special emphasis on the future development of the San Tomas area and other similar "neighborhoods" within the city.

Although the project is estimated to cost $45,000 over an 18-month period, the city's outlay in actual funds will be only a fraction (if any) of this amount.

If the city is successful in its application for assistance under the federal-state '701 program', federal funds will pick up two-thirds of the tab and the city's share can be offset by staff time.

On Monday night, the City Council employed Warren Jones and Associates as planning consultants to work out the details of the application for funds and scope of the entire program.

The Council action came after a report of the Advanced Planning Committee that has been studying the proposal for several months.

Councilman Homer Hyde, who made the report, is chairman of

Sicard heads Membership Day C. of C. drive

A one day President Sweepstakes membership drive for the Campbell Chamber of Commerce is planned for March 23 under the leadership of Lee Sicard. The fast growing local Chamber is expected to recruit many more new members into the ranks which will exemplify the economic growth of Campbell and help solidify the Campbell business image.

According to James Duffield, Campbell Chamber manager, the recruiters will fan out into the field for a one day drive following a kick-off breakfast.

All the newly-signed members will be introduced at the first 1966 luncheon which will be held at the Villa Felice March 24 at 12 noon. Speaker for the Monday luncheon will be Supervisor Ralph H. Mehrkens.

Helpers for the Wednesday membership drive can volunteer by calling the Chamber office, 378-6242. Reservations for the Thursday luncheon can also be made at the Chamber.

City honors Mexican fire chief

HONORED VISITOR--Mayor Charles Rose (left) presents Cecil H. Knight, fire chief of Madero, Mexico, at the City Council meeting Monday, with a scroll emphasizing the good will that has been built up during the last two years between the fire departments of Campbell and Madero. The Campbell Firefighters Association initiated a movement in which much needed equipment has been contributed to the Madero department.

Chief Knight is here for a week. He will attend an oil fire control center in Turlock at which Fire Captains Jerry Gomes and John Butterfield of Campbell are instructors. Knight was guest of honor Monday before the Council meeting at the Herman Rice residence. Rice is president of the Campbell Firefighters Association.

TWO BIG CHIEFS--Fire Chief George Maxwell (left) and Cecil Knight, fire chief at the oil refinery in Madero in Tampico, Mexico, at the City Council meeting Monday night when Knight was honored. During the past two years, the Madero Fire Department has received fire-fighting equipment contributed by fire-fighting units in the United States. The move to assist Madero was initiated by the Campbell Firefighters Association.

Freeway plan gets city ok

Plans presented by the state for the eventual widening of Highway 17 through the City of Campbell received the approval of the City Council Monday night.

But the city also learned that before any landscaping would be done, areas adjacent to the freeway also have to be improved.

The freeway plans as approved allow for White Oaks Road to open onto Camden Ave. at the interchange. Previous plans called for White Oaks becoming a cul-de-sac. Residents in the area and the city had protested this and the state conceded to them.

In a letter of transmittal to the state, the city will emphasize the need for landscaping and will explain that by the time the freeway is widened, the improvement of the creek area along the road will have been greatly improved.

The city will also ask that a new traffic study be made for the Hamilton-17 intersection to see whether a signal is needed there.

FIREWORKS IN MARCH--Dick Yee, president of Dick's Super Markets that operates 11 stores in the county, officially launches the groundbreaking ceremonies for a new market located at San Tomas and Hacienda, as part of the Topaz Builders development by tossing fireworks onto the spot where the market will go, a traditional gesture of his. City officials also took part in the ceremonies. (Pictures on page 9 of this issue).

Editorial

Vote of the people

The Press, prior to any announcement by candidates for the City Council, editorially urged that Councilmen Ralph Doetsch and Homer Hyde, seek reelection.

We said that we would be pleased to support the candidacies of the two incumbents, if they filed. We sincerely feel that the interests of the city can best be served by these two experienced councilmen who had proved by their records their interest, devotion and dedication to their community.

We are pleased that the two incumbents decided to seek new terms, and we are happy to reiterate our prior commitment.

We urge a strong vote of confidence for the two incumbent councilmen, Ralph Doetsch and Homer Hyde, in the municipal election on April 12.

In addition to two councilmen who are to be elected then, the voters will also name a city clerk and city treasurer. Mrs. Dorothy Trevethan, city clerk and Mrs. Velma Olds, city treasurer, are unopposed for the positions they now hold.

Also on the ballot in the municipal election will be "Advisory Question No. 1":

"Shall the domestic water supplies serving the City of Campbell be fluoridated in a manner recommended and approved by the California State Department of Public Health".

Considerable misunderstanding has arisen over the reasons why the City Council decided to place the fluoridation question on the ballot.

Especially critical of the council's action have been the anti-fluoridation forces.

We think their criticism is grossly unfair. The council has taken very definite steps to publicly proclaim by a resolution to that effect that the city is neutral in this highly controversial and emotional issue.

The question is on the ballot simply to determine by a vote of the electorate how the people feel about the fluoridation question.

Actually the City Council was more or less forced to get an answer on the fluoridation question from the citizens of Campbell as a result of the hearings now being conducted by the Public Utilities Commission on whether the San Jose Water Works should fluoridate its water as directed by a majority of the voters of San Jose.

Fully half of the people of the City of Campbell receive their water from the San Jose Water Works. Yet the people of Campbell did not have an opportunity to vote on the question when the majority of San Jose voters favored fluoridation.

At one of the PUC hearing sessions, the city manager of Campbell was asked why no action had been taken to determine the opinion of Campbell residents on the matter. It was implied that without such a vote it would be unfair for the city to either officially oppose or favor fluoridation.

It was also suggested that steps should be taken to get the answer.

That, then, is the basic reason for the question being presented to the people on April 12.

We think it makes good sense. We commend the City Council for taking such action.

We concede that no matter how the vote goes in Campbell on the question it may have little or no bearing on the San Jose question. That will be decided by the Public Utilities Commission after the hearings are completed.

We recognize also that even with an overwhelming negative vote in Campbell and it is decided by the PUC that the San Jose Water Works must fluoridate, we who are served by the San Jose Water Works will get fluoridated water. There is no way apparently to keep it out of the water that comes into our community.

We do not intend to get involved in the merits or the demerits of the question of fluoridation of water.

We are well aware of the sound cases presented by both sides.

Quite frankly, even from a personal viewpoint, we are not sure how we feel about the issue.

We dislike vehemently, however, being placed in a position where we had nothing to say about fluoridation when it was presented to the voters of San Jose, inasmuch as we are served by the same water company that serves San Jose.

Therefore, we welcome the opportunity on April 12 to vote on the question, even if we are not sure at the present time how we will vote.

EQUAL TIME is something one often heard bandied about especially during election years. It applies particularly to one candidate getting certain space to expand and expound his platform and another candidate demanding the same treatment.

But the basic principle sort of applies this week in a good-natured and unpremeditated way to the police and fire departments of our fair city.

Fire Chief George Maxwell presented us with the framed picture (depicted above) of the doggondest poker game ever staged.

George explained that it has been around for quite a few years and he has known that we have admired it, although neither one of us have any idea of where it came from or even who painted it.

Now thanks to Fire Chief Maxwell it will have a place of distinction on our office wall.

IN HIS NOTE TO US, George commented that it was a small way of saying thanks for what The Press has done for the fire department over the years.

He also noted that "it just seems fitting that you should have it." You can read anything you want between those lines.

Before we hung the picture on the wall, one person (best to remain unidentified) volunteered to name the characters in the picture. But we did not accept the kind offer.

That might be going too much to the dogs. And one should never look, we have been told, either a gift-horse or dog in the mouth.

Or something like that.

But in all sincerity we appreciate these two expressions of good will from two departments of the city in which we all can take justifiable pride.

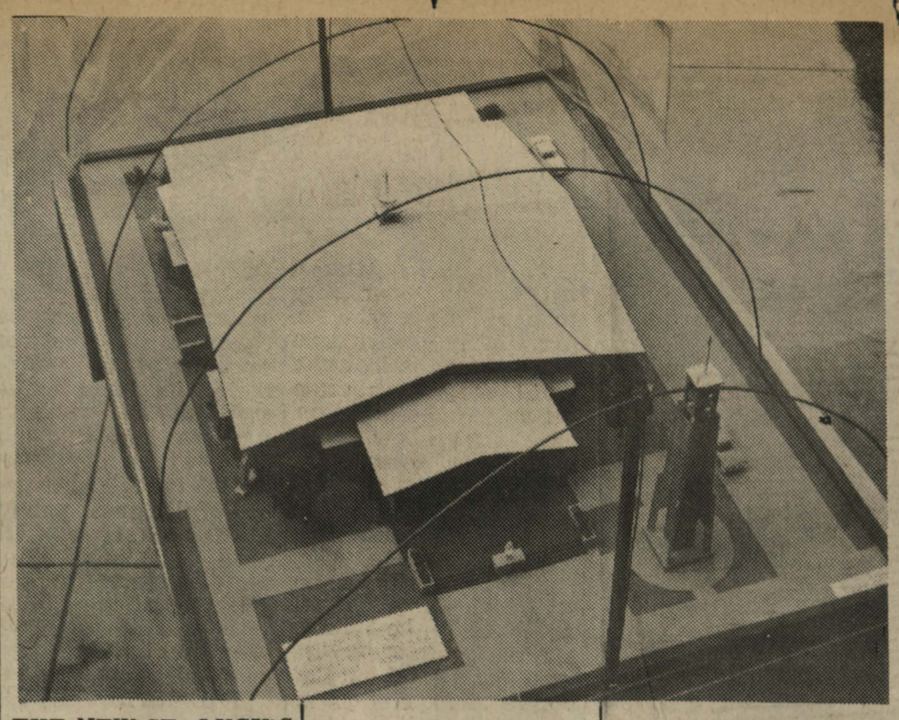
JUST FOR THE RECORD you might be interested in the party registration for Campbell as of January 4 as compiled by Frank M. Jordan, secretary of state.

Of the 7,461 registered voters of that date, 4,380 were Democratic and 2,723 were Republican. There were 355 "declined to state" and three listed under miscellaneous.

The next report to be issued will be compiled from the totals at the close of registration (April 14) for the direct primary which will be held June 7.

The printed report will be about May 27.

It will be interesting to note the changes, as the issues get warmer. Further the deponeth sayeth not.



THE NEW ST. LUCY'S --The picture shows the roofline as depicted by the model of the new $350,000 St. Lucy's Church planned for Campbell which will be double the size of the present church. There will be no pillars in the church, and the roof will be of laminated beams. It will be located just north of the parish rectory on Winchester Blvd.

by 24-feet. The sanctuary of the church will have no pillars or posts and will have a wood roof of laminated clear span beams.

Another interesting feature of the church, the architect pointed out, is that there will be no choir loft as such. He explained that recent changes in the church's liturgy puts emphasis on the congregation joining in the hymn singing. He said the choir will be located in a section near the altar and baptistry.

The architect also explained that the altar itself will extend into the sanctuary, allowing members of the congregation to be on either side as well as in front of it.

FINAL PHASE

Father Lally said that the building of the new church is the final phase in the overall building program of the parish that has planned for many years.

In the first phase the nine acre parcel located at Kennedy and Winchester was acquired on which the first unit of the school was built. The original site of the church was on E. Rincon Ave.

The church was built on the property in 1957 and then the second unit of the school was added which now accommodates 550 students. No further expansion of the school facilities is planned, Father Lally said Father Lally became pastor of St. Lucy's in February, 1960. Father Denis Kennelley was the first pastor.

The rectory, which meant the converting of an older building already on the property, was next constructed followed by the convent for the teaching sisters, that is located on Kennedy Ave.

Father Lally said that he did not anticipate that any special fund-raising drive will be necessary to finance the new construction.

the committee. Serving with him were Councilman Ed Rogers, Planning Commissioners Thayer Lyons and Jim Tomlinson, City Manager Bob Stephens and Planning Director Dick Hogan. Seven planning consultant firms were interviewed during the research period.

Following the employment of the consultant firm, the Council authorized the committee and staff to work out an agreement, specifying the terms and conditions under which the city and consultant would work under the '701 program'.

The general outline of the project calls for the development of specific plans for San Tomas and six other "neighborhoods" within the city.

It also includes the outlining of space needs and locations for a new civic center and other public facilities.

It will also present an overall beautification program for the city including the improvement of parks and other open spaces.

Included also will be a traffic circulation plan, revisions of the present general plan where needed and the development of a capital improvements program, including costs.

Saratoga "neighbors" object to flood control channel

Residents of Saratoga, just across the creek from the Leep Homes subdivision on Pollard Road, the only spot where Campbell and Saratoga touch, on Monday night at the City Council meeting added another opponent to their list in their long battle against the development of the tract.

This time they took on the County Flood Control. They objected to the removal of trees in the channel of the creek that takes the runoff waters from a wide area.

Floyd Fowler, representing Flood Control, explained why it was necessary to develop the channel in the manner planned, stressing it was the most economical way and tax money was being used. Some trees would have to be removed, he said.

He also explained that the City of Saratoga on the west bank had agreed to the channel plan and the removal of trees.

City Council members suggested to Richard E. Cummins, leader of the Saratoga contingent, that they contact their own city council first about the problem. Perhaps some compromise could be worked out, they added.

The Council then proceeded to approve the subdivision map of the first unit for Leep Homes.

In other actions, the Council:

--SHOWED interest in the proposal of Frank Holt, county Civil Defense coordinator, to centralize some of the activities of a county-wide CD system.

--ADOPTED three ordinances referring to garbage disposal, dancing and entertainment and speed limit zoning on Winchester.

--AUTHORIZED a replacement for Fire Engineer Donald I. Mason who suffered a heart attack and must be retired as permanently disabled. The state compensation fund will pay Mason a maximum of $70 per week, and the city under the retirement plan will pick up the balance of his salary for a year. For the remainder of the fiscal year, the city cost will be $127 and for the next budget $2,862.

--DISAPPROVED of the proposed plan for a County Economic Development Association, although noting that there will be several good points in the proposal.

--AUTHORIZED an agreement with San Jose Water Works for the installation of Dell and Division water mains in order to develop the industrial property in that area. The city advances $34,580 of which one-half is refundable under the agreement and the balance to be returned by assessments.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

A recent letter to the editor in one of the area papers, is a perfect example of the "half-truth" employed by the anti-fluoridationists to frighten the public and deprive them of the opportunity to profit from one of the great public health measures of all time - adjustment of the domestic water fluoride content to bring about a 60% average reduction in dental decay.

THE HALF-TRUTH

"Also, in recent years, fluoridated San Francisco has the highest death rate and the lowest birth rate in the Bay Area. In 1963, San Francisco's death rate was 118% higher than Contra Costa, and 104% higher than Marin, both non-fluoridated."

THE WHOLE TRUTH

In 1950, the death rate in San Francisco was 13.3 per thousand - a rate higher than the 6.3 per thousand in Contra Costa County and the 7.2 per thousand in Marin County. Also, in 1950, San Francisco's birth rate was 20.1 per thousand - a rate lower than the 27.1 per thousand in Contra Costa County and the 22.7 per thousand in Marin County. These were the rates before the introduction of fluoridation in San Francisco County.

The relationship has not changed since. The difference in rates is not due to fluoridation, as implied, but due to the difference in the age distribution in San Francisco. This county is, on the average, older than either of the other two counties with which it is being compared.

According to the most recent census data, the average person in San Francisco is 37.3 years old, while the average resident of Marin County is 30.6, and the average resident of Contra Costa County is only 27.7. With an older population, a higher death rate and a lower birth rate would be expected.

Don't be mislead by the statements of the anti-fluoridationists. Ask your physician or dentist.

Sincerely,

Allan C. Blaine

County census to begin soon

Enumerator crews for Santa Clara County's Countdown 66 are now being trained in preparation for kickoff of the big mid-decade census starting Monday, March 21. Applicants for the enumerator jobs are still being accepted at the San Jose and Palo Alto State Employment Offices.

More than 1,000 trained enumerators will hit the streets, roads and footpaths of the county on March 21 on a week-long campaign to visit every household inside the county boundaries. They will compile population totals for each of the 16 cities, the unincorporated areas, and a grand total for the whole county.

Census officials are urging all citizens to cooperate actively with the censustakers in filling out the forms at the door. Census Director Robert L. Sturdivant pointed out that the overall cost of the effort will be at the rate of $10,000 per minute countywide, therefore taxpayers' dollars would be saved by cooperation.

More tax dollars are expected to be gained from Countdown 66, since State Department of Finance observers will be on hand to verify the census figures, thus qualifying local jurisdictions for additional returns of State gasoline tax and vehicle license fees for local use.

Another important reason for Countdown 66 is to gather data that will help community leaders and organizations in planning and policy-making for future schools, parks, hospitals, transportation facilities, etc. in response to growth. Names of citizens giving information to enumerators will be held confidential.

The 16 cities and the Economic Opportunity Commission are cooperating with the County and helping to finance the census.

In 1936 the Center has moved to its present location in Los Gatos as a home for Chinese orphan girls. In 1953 the program was changed to include both girls and boys of all races, creeds and origins.

Wedding reception given for Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Allen

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Allen (Mary Knowles) were the guests of honor at a wedding reception Sunday afternoon, March 6. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Arva M. Knowles, was hostess for the affair, held at her home at 180 W. Rincon Ave.

Mary and Jerry were married in San Jose on Feb. 11. The bridegroom, a Navyman, has returned to his station at Whiting Field, Florida. Mary will join him upon her graduation from Campbell High School in June.

The bride chose to wear a pink nylon ballarina length gown for the reception. A beautifully decorated wedding cake was the center of the bride's table and the traditional wedding bells, doves and white flowers were used in decorations around the room. Approximately 75 guests greeted the young couple. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Knowles of 89 Cherry Lane. She writes a column of high school news for The Campbell Press. Jerry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Verle Allen of Fort Mill, South Carolina.

Anyone wishing to house these college band students on the evening of March 25 is asked to call the Campbell High School office.

Costumes for "Camelot" made

Made by hand with loving care. That's the colorful medieval authentic costumes being worn in the Campbell High School's production of "Camelot" being presented again this weekend.

Mothers in the PTA have labored long and hard to produce a variety of costumes being used in the play. Mrs. Edwin Phillips of Campbell, PTA president, said the group has been working on the costumes since January under the direction of Miss Robynne O'Hara, a student at Campbell High two years ago, now employed as an expert designer and seamstress.

Miss O'Hara designed all of the costumes, drafted the patterns, and then turned them over to various mothers, who made the costumes. It was a monumental task, she said, because the colorful play has 30 characters, each of which has at least two changes of costume. The PTA will receive $200 for the proceeds of the play, Mrs. Phillips said, and the money will be immediately set aside for scholarships for worthy Campbell High School students.

CAMPBELL SEAMSTRESSES - Campbell High School PTA members look over some of their handiwork, the costumes they have made for the students appearing in "Camelot" now being presented at the school. They have been working on more than 60 colorful costumes in the play since last January. Shown here are (left to right) Mrs. Edwin Phillips, PTA president, Mrs. Alfred Acken, Mrs. LeRoy Nelson, Mrs. Emmett Carraher, Mrs. Ben Johnson, Mrs. Raymond Wilson and Mrs. C. C. Bradshaw.

BUC BANTER

BY MARY KNOWLES ALLEN

Early last September, Larry McCommas began spreading his enthusiasm about what he said would be the greatest production ever done by Campbell High School. With high excitement, nearly six months of hard work was culminated Friday night as Campbell presented her opening night of "Camelot".

The least to be said of "Camelot" is that it is spectacular. The acting is superb, the singing wonderful, and the costumes and set design unbelievable for a high school production.

"Camelot" opens with the arrival of Guenevere in the royal kingdom. She has come to Camelot to marry Arthur who is hiding in a tree.

Guenevere slips away from the festivities, comes to the tree, and not being aware of Arthur's presence, she prays to St. Genevieve to guide her uncertainty. She then meets Arthur, not knowing that he is her future husband.

After charming her with stories of life in Camelot, he discloses his identity and both are delighted at the thought of becoming husband and wife.

Arthur has learned from Merlyn the wisdom of brotherhood and peace and from this wisdom is inspired to form the Knights of the Round Table. Word of the Round Table reaches Lancelot in France, and he is determined to come to Camelot and join Arthur's knights.

Guenevere dislikes Lancelot the moment she lays eyes on him and arranges a jousting tournament between Lancelot and the three best jousters in Camelot. To the surprise and admiration of all present, Lancelot defeats all three knights. After the joust Lancelot has won Guenevere's admiration. During this time Lancelot has fallen in love with her.

Arthur's illegitimate son, Mordred, now comes to Camelot to dishonor his father and gain the throne himself. For the sake of his honor and Camelot's, Arthur must wage war on France.

Before the final battle Arthur meets Lancelot and Guenevere and forgives them. But the war must go on.

The ending finds the audience with mixed emotions. It can not be disclosed to one who has not yet seen the play because mere words cannot describe the beauty of it.

If you have not seen Camelot, you must. The cast and directors have made Camelot a physical success. It is there and it is beautiful.

Only you who have not seen it can make it a financial success. "As long as we can meet expenses, it doesn't matter whether we make a profit or not." This is the feeling of of Larry McCommas and most of the cast.

BLACKFORD BEAT

BY DIANE GIPSON CAROL COOK

Blackford's Varsity Basketball Team has again kept its record perfect; they've never placed first in a tournament. Despite the fact that in league play they have been undefeated for a number of years, they have yet to win a tournament.

Recently in the Camellia Tournament in Sacramento, Blackford placed third. Thousands of people in this area had hoped to see a game between Lincoln and Blackford, but it never materialized.

The faculty will play the Harlem Clowns in the Blackford gym on March 17. The faculty basketball team has named itself "Oldies but Goodies". On the team will be Pat "Dump 'em in" Dougherty, "Smilin" Angus, "Lead-foot" Dempsy, Coach Brkljacich and Coach Pesut.

This should be some game so we want everyone to come. The price for students is $1 and $1.50 for adults.

There were 45 lucky students at Blackford who received all A's, excluding physical education. They are seniors: Vicki Burton, Bob Campbell, Barbie Carnett, Rick Hanson, Mike Powers, Sharon Wilson and Helene Zimnicki.

The World War Five are going to entertain at the Senior After Ball Party this year. The party will be in the gym and last from midnight to 4:30 a.m.

On Friday, March 25 at 8 p.m. in the Blackford cafetorium, the Fifth Annual Formal Symphonic Band Concert will be held. Joe Davis will be conducting.

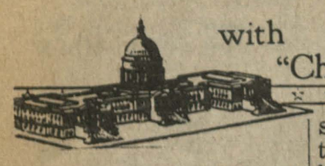
ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser



The Nationalist Chinese regime on Taiwan has been villainized and maligned by some writers as a corrupt regime under a scheming War Lord who itches to start World War III by invading the mainland of China. As a result of such vicious propaganda, the true significance of Formosa to United States' interests is rarely understood.

Last month Chairman Mendel Rivers of the House Armed Services Committee requested me to investigate claims that Taiwan's defenses were deteriorating with obsolescence. Congressman O. C. Fisher (D-Tex.) and I spent more than an hour with Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek and several more hours with his son, Defense Minister Chiang.

Instead of a corrupt former War Lord, we found a lithe, alert 79 year old leader of a fast developing nation. Though his desire to return to the Chinese mainland remained undiminished, his agile mind concentrated upon the realistic problem of the moment--that of modernizing Formosan defenses against the threat of Communist invasion. Convincingly he described the serious consequences to the U. S. effort in Vietnam if Formosa were to fall.

Military experts have often referred to Taiwan as our most effective aircraft carrier. It is undoubtedly the backbone of our military posture in Asia. Without it we would be denied friendly bases and our access to the China Sea would be jeopardized.

Furthermore, the full two Chinese Communist Armies, Naval and Air Force units which are tied down on the Chinese mainland to resist a possible Nationalist invasion could be turned loose against South Korea or Vietnam if Taiwan were to fall.

U. S. investments in military aid to the Generalissimo have been most productive. For each $1 received from us which in turn is spent in the U. S. economy, the Chinese Nationalists have invested $2 of their own.

Where a Free Chinese soldier can be maintained for less than $100 in U. S. aid, it costs more than $5,000 to maintain his U. S. counterpart and over $2,000 to support a member of the South Vietnamese armed forces.

Formosa no longer receives our economic aid and military aid has been drastically reduced. As a result, and inspite of the extraordinary effort made by the Nationalists themselves, their Air Force has become obsolete, their radar is inefficient, and their naval vessels are inadequate. Directly across the China Sea, Chinese Communists are equipped with MIG 19 and 21 jets and their naval forces are undergoing constant improvement.

The question of whether Chinese Nationalist troops should be used in Vietnam is debatable, and so is the question of whether Chiang should be unleashed for an invasion of the mainland. But there is no question that keeping Formosa free and secure from a Communist invasion is of paramount importance to the United States.

Obviously the direct support of the more than 200,000 troops we have committed to Vietnam would be seriously hampered if Formosa were to fall into unfriendly hands. We cannot afford the deterioration of Chinese Nationalist forces!

Girl scouts

-March 6-12: Local Girl Scouts of Neighborhood 15 will join the more than three million Brownie, Junior, Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. in celebrating Girl Scout Week which began on Girl Scout Sunday, March 6 and will end on the Girl Scout Birthday March 12, the 54th anniversary of Girl Scouting.

In celebration of the big event Girl Scouts will be wearing their uniforms to church and school each day of the week, and you will be easily able to recognize the more than 700 girls in our community who are involved in our local Girl Scout program.

Special events for the week as planned by the troops included a tree planting ceremony at Hazelwood Elementary School, yesterday at 12:30. A Promisory Note was presented to Duane Beaubien, principal of the school, by the Girl Scouts of the Hazelwood area; promising to create for Hazelwood School an outdoor classroom on the school property at the corner of Virginia Ave. and Waldo St., over a five year period.

The first step in the project was undertaken yesterday when the Girl Scouts planted six redwood trees to serve as a background for the outdoor classroom. The completed program will include lawn, shade trees, benches and shrubs.

Co-ordinating the project was Mrs. R. A. Clapes of 556 Virginia Ave., leader of Junior Troop 211. Other troops participating are Brownie troops 826, 827, 824 and 252; and Junior Troop 178--all Girl Scouts from Hazelwood School.

Junior troops 171 from El Quito Park School and 766 from Baker School attended the fashion show yesterday at the Emporium sponsored by American Girl Magazine (published by G. S. of U.S.A.) which emphasized good grooming for Girl Scouts and was titled, "Good Grooming and Fashions for Spring".

Cadettes in Troop 55 attended religious services at Stanford Chapel on the campus of Stanford University in Palo Alto on Girl Scout Sunday, March 6. Most of our local churches also recognized Girl Scouting on Sunday either from the pulpit or in their bulletins.

Cadette Troop 55 will also have a tree planting ceremony Friday, March 11 at 3:30 at the Rolling Hills School. They will be planting a Sierra White Alder on the school grounds.

Questions and Answers

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE
SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

Q. I am 67 and receive widow's benefits. Will this qualify me for hospital insurance benefits?

A. Yes. You qualify as a beneficiary who is at least 65.

Q. I am a retired worker, age 66. My wife receives a reduced benefit, since she is only 63. Can we both qualify for health insurance benefits?

A. No, only you can qualify at this time. Your wife must wait until she is 65.

Q. I am 57 years of age, and receive social security disability insurance benefits. Am I eligible for Medicare benefits?

A. No. Only persons age 65 or over will be eligible for health insurance benefits.

Q. I am 65 years old and still working. Would you advise me to file an application only for Medicare at this time?

A. Since you are 65 and are probably insured for monthly social security benefits, you should file an application for monthly benefits. If your earnings are too high to permit payment of monthly benefits, they will be withheld until you retire or reduce your earnings. You will lose nothing by filing your application at this time, and it will entitle you to health insurance benefits, whether or not you work.

Casey Act will affect state's medically needy

California State Assembly Bill 5, otherwise known as the Casey Act, went into effect on March 1, with important repercussions on hospitals in Santa Clara County and throughout the State.

The Casey Act provides that public welfare recipients under State and Federal programs, plus some other medically needy people, are now able to choose their own doctor, and also their own hospital with their doctor's approval.

For Santa Clara County Hospital and Medical Center this means, in effect, that most patients currently under the aid programs of the Welfare Department become private patients.

Fire damages home on Century

An overstuffed chair in the living room of the home of John Anemact, 495 Century Dr., Campbell, was the focal point of a devastating fire Sunday morning.

Campbell Firemen said 80 percent of the home suffered heavy damage. The family of six narrowly escaped being engulfed in the flames, which were discovered at 1:30 a.m. by Anemact. Fire Marshal Gene Borden said the fire apparently started in the chair. Anemact admitted smoking a pipe in the chair about two hours earlier.

Captain John Butterfield, who answered the phone call to the fire department, said "It was really weird, we could hear the fire crackling and popping but didn't know where to go." Fire crews stood by to roll until a neighbor spotted the fire and called the department.

A festive luncheon will be served at gaily decorated tables, appropriate for St. Patrick's Day. A short program will be presented by Castro students and Frank Lavoi, principal, will speak briefly. Mrs. Emmet Carraher, Castro PTA president, will give a short resume of PTA activities.

Saratoga site of college gets first 'class'

First "class" was called to order on the West Valley College Saratoga campus recently.

Of necessity, it was an outdoor class, since there are no buildings yet on the Saratoga site.

Appropriately, students using the "classroom" under the direction of Instructor George Grubb, Engineering I. The class used surveying instruments recently donated to the college by Civil Engineer J. Winter Smith of San Jose.

Under Grubb's direction, the class conducted a field problem, measuring with a steel tape. Stakes were driven to define a portion of the campus, the distance between the stakes was measured, and the angles at the corners of the area were found.

Grubb said that these field measurements were then used to draw an outline map of the area measured, and to calculate its dimensions.

Future field problems at the site will give practice in the use of engineer's level, transit and in the preparation of maps, Grubb said.

PG&E new kite fun book gives rundown on kite flying

"For a cat, there's no hobby that can replace chasing birds.

Sylvester pussy cat, the notorious canary chaser of filmed cartoons, is the author of that statement. But he alters his thinking a bit after some entertaining action with his little friend (?) Tweety in Pacific Gas and Electric Company's new Kite Fun Book.

The full-color comic booklet, available free at all PG&E offices, offers youngsters a full rundown on how to make and fly kites--safely--during the 1966 season.

Sylvester and Tweety are the latest of a number of comic character stars to bring an entertaining and educational message to boys and girls. The new PG&E booklet contains puzzle and game features as well as suggestions for building kites of various types. Copies may be obtained in quantity by school or youth groups.

The comic book story calls attention to these safety rules:

1. Don't cross streets or highways while flying kites.
2. Don't fly a kite with metal in the frame.
3. Don't use tinsel string, wire or any twine with metal in it.
4. Don't fly a kite near TV or radio aerials.
5. Don't fly a kite near electric power lines.
6. Con't pull on the string or climb a power pole to loosen a snagged kite.
7. Don't touch fallen electric wires.
8. Don't fly a kite in the rain.

Flags given to Bucknall School

Blue Birds and Campfire Girls from the second to the fifth grade at Bucknall School presented a new American Flag and a California State Flag to Principal Leon Panttaja of Bucknall School yesterday, March 15.

NEW BOOKS AT THE CAMPBELL LIGRARY

YES I CAN, the Story of Sammy Davis Jr.

This book is the self-portrait of one of the extra-ordinary men of our time, who became a figure of controversy because he dared to live his life not as a Negro but as a man.

Yes I Can is much more than the story of Sammy Davis' triumphs as the world's greatest entertainer. It is the story of a one-of-a-kind man, who had the strength to live by his own rules, and who would not be taught to hate back.

Dennis Awtrey wins all-loop cage honors

Dennis Awtrey, senior at Blackford High who has dominated West Valley Athletic League basketball play for the past four years, was named the league's most valuable player for this season, a choice that surprised no one.

During the past four years, Blackford has won the league championship, something that is also more than a coincidence.

On the first team in the all-league selection in addition to Awtrey were Bill Drozdiak of Del Mar, the only junior; Wayne Watkins, Leigh; Ron Green, Blackford; Bob Harms, Los Gatos.

On the second team: Dan Willis, Leigh; Roy Grillo, Westmont, both juniors; Dave Crema, Los Gatos; Gary Ledesma, Westmont, both seniors and Gary Radunich, Del Mar, sophomore.

Honorable mention: Doug Bowser, Blackford; Joel Salmi, Camden; Fred Johnson, Camden; Ken Stahl, Camden; Al Dwillis, Campbell; Bruce Klassen, Del Mar; Paul Kalff, Saratoga; Gary Porter, Westmont; Craig Wilder, Los Gatos.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Voter:

On April 12 you will go to the polls in the Campbell municipal election to make your choice for the candidates for the Campbell City Council.

The two incumbents for the two positions on the Council, RALPH DOETSCH and HOMER HYDE, have capably demonstrated by their records of service to their city over the years that they are deserving of your support.

They have proven by their actions that they firmly and sincerely believe in making a better Campbell in which to live and work.

No one can ask for any better objectives than that.

We believe in the sincerity of the two incumbents. Their integrity and their interest in their community in which they have grown up and in which they have so much at stake is unquestioned.

We are convinced that the community can best be served if Ralph Doetsch and Homer Hyde are retained in office on April 12.

We consider it a privilege to support their candidacy and urge you to vote for them.

Cambrian voters invited to coffee hours

Information on the Cambrian District Tax Election scheduled for March 29 will be available throughout the community by means of "Coffee Hours" presented by school board members, faculty and administrative personnel, and interested citizens.

Cambrian School District is working under the financial handicap of having the lowest tax rate for districts of comparable size in Santa Clara County.

The proposed $2.50 rate will bring Cambrian up to par with comparable neighboring districts and provide the needed "balance" between financial support and educational requirements.

Coffee hours may be arranged by calling Mrs. Marian Warning at 377-5480 (days) or 377-2541 (evenings).

He then switched his vocational interest to the church, graduating from Boston University School of Theology with a bachelor of sacred theology degree in 1945.

Based on a non-partisan study conducted by a sub committee of the Senate Committee on Government Operations, under the chairmanship of Henry M. Jackson, it provides a brief, clear and forceful digest of the first full scale review of the policy making mechanisms that were set up by the National Security Council in 1947.

Written with extraordinary candor by the man who reported personally to President Eisenhower on the daily events of the hearings, Days of Shame is the long-awaited re-enactment of one of the most disgraceful episodes in Congressional history.

New GI bill makes many vets eligble for benefits

Congressman Charles S. Gubser (R-Calif.) announced this week that approximately 10,220 veterans in the Tenth Congressional District are potentially eligible for benefits and services under the new GI Bill just signed into law by the President.

Gubser was a strong supporter of the new bill which provides education and training programs generally patterned after the highly successful GI Bills of World War II and the Korean Conflict.

The Congressman pointed out that in the first year alone over 1250 veterans are expected to take advantage of the educational benefits, according to statistics from the Veterans Administration. This educational provision is expected to make available to veterans in the District almost $820,000 in direct benefits in that first year.

The educational provisions of the new bill go into effect June 1, 1966.

In addition to the educational benefits, the program is expected to provide VA guaranteed loans totaling about $14,713,000 to some 800 veterans in the first year.

The veterans covered under this bill are also eligible for hospital benefits, and 1620 patient days at a cost of $41,700 are expected to be made available to applying veterans in the first year.

Congressman Gubser said that all veterans are eligible for educational and guaranteed home loan benefits who were on active duty more than 180 days after Jan. 31, 1955, and honorably discharged, or who were discharged with less than 180 days' service because of a service-incurred disability.

Under the education and training sections, monthly payments for full time training are: $100 for veterans without dependents; $125 for veterans with one dependent; $150 for veterans with more than one dependent.

Veterans eligible can receive up to 36 months of schooling or training on the basis of one month for each month spent in uniform.

COMMUNICANTS--These boys and girls from Campbell were among the large group of students who received their First Holy Communion at St. Lucy's Catholic Church on Saturday, March 5, at the 9 o'clock mass. The youngsters all reside on Wren Way in Campbell. They are (left to right) Patrick Sullivan, Caroline Connolly, Scott Tougas, Penny Hess, Robert Montoya and Carol Jones.
